

RJM Associates, Inc. Jobs/Planet Hire

Job No.

511

Date 1/18/2011

Position: Datacenter Operations Specialist

Location: Boston MA

Shift: Days with weekend shifts every two weeks. Also have the flexibility to work off shifts when the IT Department requires it for system and coverage issues.

Responsibilities:

Manage and perform task lists for production which involves hardware responsibilities such as rebooting clusters and servers, alerting for failures and recovery and scheduling tasks like application's start-up and shut down, maintenance of task's sheets. It also includes hardware and system acceptance testing routines.

Will also address communication failures to the specific team and perform recovery process. Test TELCO number allocations such as toll free, caller ids and local Ids. Manage and execute application's start-up and shut down based on dynamic schedules. Generate and manage task sheets. Install and support all hardware, system and technology. Conduct acceptance tests on all the platforms that the department supports for the organization.

Monitor complex systems and provide alerts to the specific teams. Must oversee and manage the TELCO bandwidth by supporting the calling schedules for various applications on an hourly monitor basis. Must provide monitor support for the systems that supports multimodal outreaches.

Qualifications:

Minimum of a bachelor's degree in computer science or any other IT related area. The ideal candidate must have strong analytical and logical thinking abilities. Must have attention to detail and be able to take the initiative and focus on results. A strong communicator who has the skills and abilities to excel in a highly collaborative and team environment will excel in this organization. The company requires the candidate to be able to learn on the job, have the ability to meet deadlines, handle pressure and maintain the professionalism that the department exemplifies to the rest of the organization.

Technical Skills:

UNIX, database knowledge and work experience in the healthcare industry with monitoring of MQ series servers is a plus.

Salary Range:

$45,000.00 to $50,000.00 a year with includes medical insurance benefits.

Job No.

514

Date 1/18/2011

Position: PC Support Specialist

Location: Boston MA and remotely support offices in other states.

Shift: Days with occasional weekend shifts coverage for upgrades and installations.

Responsibilities:

Law firm seeks an IT seasoned professional to support the staff and the attorneys with technology issues that arise during the course of a normal business work day. The ideal candidate will have the responsibility of providing support for the technology infrastructure and end user requests. Be responsible for the addition and upgrade of new technologies. In addition this person may have to travel and provide technical expertise to other offices in the region.

Qualifications:

Three to four years of PC and Network support experience with excellent communication abilities is a requirement for any potential candidate of this company. An AS Degree or equivalent, with A+, Net+ and MCDST Certification are highly desirable for this position.

Technical Skills:

PC, Windows XP, MS-Office and Server 2003, with PC, laptop, printer and all other peripheral knowledge. Email and voicemail experience with internal configuration of chassis-based closer electronics is a plus.

Salary Range:

$55,000.00 to $62,500.00 a year with includes medical insurance benefits.

Job No.

516

Date 1/18/2011Position: Network AdministratorLocation: Boston MAShift: DaysResponsibilities:

A progressive leading edge environmental firm seeks a high energy with experience network/system administrator to be part of a dynamic and professional Information Technology team. The ideal candidate must have a positive attitude that meets deadlines with minimal stress and pressure to them and the team. This allows the company to deliver solutions to complex issues in a timely and efficient manner. This IT generalist will be responsible for overseeing all aspects of the network, server, and storage infrastructure. This position reports and is accountable to the Director of IT.

The candidate will be expected to research new technologies and investigate their potential for use. They will also order equipment, computers, printers, etc from vendors. Be instrumental in the deployment of project management and system upgrades. Occasional overnight travel to satellite offices to support staff will be expected from this professional. They will also administer the phone and voicemail system. This multifaceted IT expert will also oversee and direct the help desk staff while providing a mentoring environment for the members of this support team.

Qualifications:

A highly skilled, detailed and organized individual with three to five years of high level IT and worker support with PC, network and help desk skills is most desirable for this position. Must have a proven work ability to multitask and prioritize IT issues on a day to day and inter organizational basis. A proven track record with the setup, maintenance of servers, systems, network PCs, printers, email, voicemail-phone systems, user accounts and environments. This candidate must also have specific LAN experience with the installation of cables, hubs, switches and routers. There is also an expectation of this professional to provide the organization with proper data backup, fire-wall and anti-virus system configuration and administration.

Technical Skills:

Must have experience with the following: MS Exchange2010, Server2008, Windows7/XP/NT with Office 2007-2010. Have experience with Group Policy, NTFS and share permission. Other desirable skills are Cisco Firewall and network security administration. Some knowledge of VMware ESX server and/or Fiber channel SAN (HP). A plus would be OWA, Windows Mobile/Blackberry, and Exchange clustering. Past exposure to WAN, redundancy and failover, VLANs, VPN technology and Nagios Networks is welcomed. Any familiarity with Salesforce.com and the implementation and or the support of a VOIP phone system would facilitate and interview with this environmental organization.

Salary Range:

$90,000.00 to $115,000.00 a year with includes medical insurance benefits, 401K, Tuition reimbursement, gym memberships with discounts and wellness programs.

Job No.

518

Date 1/18/2011

Position: Part-time Computer Operator

Location: Northern Massachusetts

Shift: Mid-shift, 4-9pm

Responsibilities:

A large consulting house seeks a computer operator with excellent communication skills to work on all computer hardware and software to process the scheduled daily work. Maintain a daily log of work completed and perform scheduled maintenance on appropriate computer hardware. Be responsible for accurate data processing equipment maintenance. Maintain a log of all hardware and software issues that arise and document the solutions and results. Coordinate computer processing workflows and jobs to a successful completion. Be responsible for the monitoring and printing of all quarter and year- end tax reports. Provide periodic backups of the peripheral equipment.

Qualifications:

The ideal contractor must have at least a high school diploma with two years of data processing experience. Proven experience using PCs, printers (line and laser), check cutters, postage meters, copiers, modems, telephones, faxes, check insertion machines is helpful. The right candidate must understand computer architecture and datacenter operations as well as be able to lift up to 50 pounds.

Salary Range:

$11.00 to $12.50 an hour as this position has a slight chance of going permanent in a few months.

Job No.

520

Date 1/18/2011

Position: Contract Backup Computer Operator

Location: Metro West

Shift: Days

Responsibilities:

A client of ours located in Metro West seeks an experienced computer operator for a long-term contract assignment. This professional, will be an outgoing team player that will have the ability to provide day-to-day support of data protection operations. This contractor will also have the capability to travel daily to other data center sites for tape rotations and backups. This also includes working some weekends and holidays. Must coordinate with the off sight storage vendors for pickups and deliveries of tapes (Iron Mountain experience preferred). The ideal candidate will provide technical support of data protection software and servers which are Arcserve, Backup Exec and NetBackup Enterprise. Will support the tape libraries under data protection software control as well as be the technical support of IT-related equipment as requested by general admin staff which is the servers, tape libraries, LAN and SAN cabling and other peripherals. The contractor will give input and suggestions to improve the performance of the position.

Qualifications:

A proven track record of being a self-starter who is able to perform the required tasks of computer data operation tape library functions of this client. They will have already established work experiences where they required very limited supervision to perform the work. Physically be able to move equipment and supplies in and out of buildings and data centers. The right contractor must have the knowledge and understanding of data security paradigms which includes software and hardware. The ability to learn new skills, adapt to a changing IT environment are a necessity of this contractor if they want to stay employed in this position.

Technical Skills:

General knowledge of various IT systems and hardware like Windows, Unix, VMWare, HP & IBM servers, blade enclosures and LAN is required.

Salary Range:

$17.00 to 19.00 an hour as this is a long-term assignment and if you have been out of work for awhile it is a great way to build your resume.

Job No.

522

Date 1/18/2011

Position: Network Consultant

Location: 128 Area

Shift: Days

Responsibilities:

A client of ours located in the 128 area seeks intelligent, bright and highly motivated individuals to join their team of network consultants. Candidates must demonstrate a highly professional demeanor and possess excellent organizational and communication skills. Successful candidates must also be exceptional team players with strong technical aptitude and educational/professional related background. As a network consultant you will interface directly with clients, while supporting their networks and troubleshooting common small business technology problems.

Visit clients on site to ensure that the networks are running at a high level of performance. Assist with the design, planning, and implementation of network architecture involving operating systems, servers, local and wide area networks. Identify network requirements as related to client's architecture, applications, and operations and making hardware, software design recommendations to team. Work closely with management and other staff of company and internal clients personnel. Provide day-to-day operational support while in the office. This will include network and desktop issues that affect the clients

Qualifications:

A Bachelor's degree, preferably in a technological related field and coursework. One to two years of IT /IS work experience and an understanding of small business technology. This will immediately legitimize the consultant to our clients. The network consultant must want to advance in the company and become an IT resource in the organization. Must also have a reliable vehicle and will be compensated for its use when on company visits.

Technical Skills:

The ideal candidate must have Microsoft product experience with Desktop OS, Server, Exchange and SQL. Also must understand network protocols and the ability to troubleshoot related issues with TCPIP, DNS, DHCP and HP Openview. The ability to comprehend, implement and conceptualize the design and outlay of a network is highly desirable.

Salary Range:

For the ideal candidate a salary will be $55,000.00 to $70,000.00 a year which includes benefits and an opportunity to advance your career with this growing company.

Job No.

523

Date 1/18/2011

Position: Help Desk Manager

Location: 128 Area

Shift: Days

Responsibilities:

A security and managed services client of ours located in the 128 area seeks intelligent, bright and highly motivated individuals to lead and guide a multi-level help desk team. Candidates must demonstrate a highly professional demeanor and possess excellent organizational and communication skills. Successful candidates must also be exceptional team players with strong technical aptitude and educational/professional related background. This customer focused professional will provide the coordination of all support and monitoring services along with the management of the client case queues.

Qualifications:

A Bachelor's degree, preferably in a technological related field and prior management skills are a must. Five to ten years experience as a help desk manager in a medium to large size organization will make the candidate an ideal fit for this organization. Strong communication and case management skills with the ability to complete projects and assignments accurately are essential to this position. Also attention to detail and accuracy are an expectation of this IT professional.

Technical Skills:

The appropriate candidate needs to have a working knowledge of routers, firewalls, MS-Windows and Exchange Servers.

Salary Range:

The salary range is from $85,000.00 to $100,000.00 a year. This also includes benefits and a chance to advance your career with this growing company.

Job No.

525

Date 1/18/2011

Position: Senior.Net Developer

Location: Boston/Cambridge

Shift: Days

Responsibilities:

The right candidate will design and develop features for a cutting-edge biopharmaceutical software product. They will also develop in-house applications using C#/.NET (v 3.5). Another function of the position is to design and develop interfaces for transferring information from third-party systems. The developer will also have to write specifications and design documents. Work with the clients to get feedback while software is being developed for specific company applications.

Qualifications:

Five plus years experience as a developer and a BS Degree in Computer Science or an equivalent field.

Technical Skills:

Must have the following C+, C++, Visual Studio, SQL Server and any exposure to Sharepoint is a plus.

Salary Range:

The salary range is from $85,000.00 to $100,000.00 a year.

Job No.

527

Date 1/18/2011

Position: Software Engineer

Location: Boston

Shift: Days

Responsibilities:

An outstanding programmer is in need at this that can develop in numerous languages for the clients. They may need to work 24/7 to get the job done. The right candidate will design and develop features for a cutting-edge biopharmaceutical software product. They will also develop in-house applications using C#/.NET (v 3.5). Another function of the position is to design and develop interfaces for transferring information from third-party systems. The developer will also have to write specifications and design documents. Work with the clients to get feedback while software is being developed for specific company applications.

Qualifications:

Five plus years experience as a developer and a BS Degree in Computer Science or an equivalent field.

Technical Skills:

Must have the following C+, C++, Visual Studio, SQL Server and any exposure to Sharepoint is a plus.

Salary Range:

The salary range is from $85,000.00 to $100,000.00 a year.

Job No.

529

Date 1/18/2011

Position: Software Engineer

Location: Boston MA

Shift: Days

Responsibilities:

Marketing company that serves over a billion monthly website requests, seeks a superstar programmer to join a fun and talent laden team of IT performers. This organization has the technology that makes the loyalty platforms of many famous websites from social networking, commerce and the sports world. There is tremendous growth opportunity for someone that wants to constantly work with new software, components, databases and products for the customer base of the company. Can you work in an environment with three monitors on your desk? Have unlimited pizza and soft drinks to keep you working around the clock? Play Foosball in our company game room? The client requires past projects and examples of written code.

Qualifications:

A Computer Science Degree with equivalent programming skills to build websites, even for fun. Has a prior reputation to have the ability to take on big technical challenges and thrive in this type of company culture. Past PHP frameworks experience is essential as is PERL and Python.

Technical Skills:

Must have PHP using OOP, MySQL with the ability to design database schemas and master all the core SQL statements. The ideal candidate must have the capability to comprehend web service technologies such as REST/SOAP API and development paradigms.

Salary Range:

$75,000.00 to $100,000.00 a year with includes medical insurance benefits.

Job No.

535

Date 1/18/2011Position: Software EngineerLocation: 128 AreaShift: DaysResponsibilities:

A software engineer who is a strong team member with above average communication skills is needed to develop video editing and asset management applications using WPF and C#. This recognized global leader in digital broadcast technology has products that influence more than 80 percent of the world's TV signals during production. The client creates broadcast, television and film production systems, including video editors, servers, encoders, storage systems, cameras, production switchers, and routers.

They seek a technical professional to join the development team of this rising company where you will create software for video production systems. You will use state-of-the-art development tools to create software in a cross-functional, team-oriented environment. Design large and complex object-oriented software projects with graphical user interfaces using WPF. Have the ability to share code and collaborate with other development teams around the nation and the world. Participate and sometime lead team-directed planning sessions for development of software. Prepare and utilize unit tests to verify developed functionality of products that the company rolls out.

Qualifications:

A Bachelor of Science degree in computer science or equivalent. Must have at least one plus year of Windows programming using multi-threaded designs. Have the ability to code, document and produce user interfaces. Accuracy and attention to detail in all aspects of software development is a must. The ability to work independently, generate results and meet deadlines is essential in this position. Any experience working with broadcast video and developing products using Scrum or other agile development process is a plus.

Technical Skills:

Programming with C++, C#, and .NET with experience with WPF a significant plus.

Salary Range:

$75,000.00 to $90,000.00 is the range with a generous benefits package.

Job No.

537

Date 1/18/2011

Position: Developer

Location: Cambridge MA

Shift: Flexible Hours

Responsibilities:

A leading publisher of news and information seeks a developer who loves to code and design systems in web sites. The company seeks a team player that can work as an independent entity while being productive. This person will support the editorial and advertising teams to maintain an edge over the competition of the company. The ideal candidate must want to work in a non political environment with other like minded creative people. Basically the organization has a small company feel with a large corporation mentality to best serve its clients.

Qualifications:

A BS Degree in Programming is a requirement as is one to two years of HTML, CSS and Javascript.

Technical Skills:

The client seeks Ruby on Rails, HAML/SASS, JQuery, Google Ad Manager, Google Analytics and basic understanding of XML. As well as programming languages such as Ruby, Python, PHP, Perl, C#, or Java. The candidate will be able to gain experience and enter a career path into these technical areas of the organization: UNIX design and development which will focus on new features, analytics and SEO. Back end development, SQL tuning, caching optimizations and test suites. Could also build advance ad serving systems with user targeting and management tools.

Salary Range:

$65,000.00 to $80,000.00 is the range with a generous benefits package.

Job No.

539

Date 1/18/2011

Position: SQL Database Administrator

Location: Boston MA

Shift: Days

Responsibilities:

A Database Administrator with SQL, Tuning and Optimization experience is needed to work in Boston at an entertainment company. What you need for this position is expert knowledge of Microsoft SQL Server. Must have knowledge of database scoping, profiling, scaling, and fault tolerant operations. The ideal candidate will have understanding of enterprise scale servers and databases along with DBA methodologies including development and operations. The right candidate will need to have database design with architecture experience in server technologies. This will generate accurate reports for the continuance of the company's domination in the music industry. Develop database triggers and functions that can also monitor database performance, backup, and recovery.

Qualifications:

A BS Degree in Programming and or a Certificate in Database Design. If you are an SQL DBA, SQL Database Administrator, or Database Administrator with more than five years of experience please apply for this opportunity.

Technical Skills:

The candidate needs to be proficient in SQL, UNIX, DBMS and MS-Server.

Salary Range:

$75,000.00 to $100,000.00 is the range with a generous benefits package
